

Jennifer Engle Speaking Topic Outline

Collaborating To Help Your Business or Non-Profit Grow

Have a problem you haven't been able to solve or a project or promotion you can't get off the ground? Need funding for a new program? Collaboration just might provide the answer. It doesn't have to mean giving up power or control. In fact, it can actually open new windows of opportunity for your business or non-profit.

In this rewarding and interactive session, you will learn methods for identifying possible partnership opportunities, when to seek alliances, where to research options, what to look for in potential partners, and who could be those best matches. In addition, participants will learn the ground rules for successful formal and informal collaborations.

Benefits

In this session, participants will :

- recognize opportunities that can benefit from collaboration
- learn the five Ws for seeking the best match ups
- understand how to lead the establishment of ground rules for formal and informal partnerships
- identify cultural fits and shortcomings from examples and a hands-on exercise

Program includes

- Lively and interesting PowerPoint presentation featuring audience interaction and highlights from various types of collaborations
- Step by step tip sheet for how to establish partnerships
- Small group interaction and feedback
- Hands-on exercises
- Group reporting with leader feedback

Program Delivery Options

Optimum – Two 90-minute sessions on two different days (can occur on same day with two hour break between sessions)

Can occur as Lunch 'n Learn sessions.

Book
Jennifer
Engle
Today!

Learn more about Jennifer Engle now at www.WomenCentric.net/Jennifer-Engle

For amazing results call 845-362-7880, or E/M us about your program needs: BookASpeaker@WomenCentric.net